"Medium red. Very ripe, fresh, nuanced nose melds red cherry, raspberry, rose petal and earth, plus a whiff of caramel. Rich, sappy and vibrant, with a firm mineral spine contributing to the impression of delicacy and inner-mouth energy. Dense but not at all weighty. Impeccably balanced wine, finishing with subtle persistence and a palate-saturating dusting of ripe, fine tannins. A rare Burgundy steal at this price. (93(+?)/100)"

That said, this is a very serious wine that should age for two decades. 2010-20. (90-93/100)"

2002	Gevrey-Chambertin “Vieilles Vignes” (Fourrier)	$ 75.00	$ 63.75
	“The nose here is fresh, bright and very earthy with classically structured middle weight flavors that display excellent old vine intensity and a finish that completely coats the palate with an intense sappiness. This is a delicious yet entirely serious effort that is an interesting display of earthy elegance. (88/100)” - Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
2002	Gevrey-Chambertin “Champeaux” (Fourrier)	$ 110.00	$ 93.50

This is a very pretty wine. (89-92/100)” - Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

2002	Corton “Les Renardes” (Vincent Girardin).....	$ 85.00	$ 72.25
	“Medium ruby. Big roasted nose combines black raspberry, chocolate and oak; distinct suggestion of surmaturite Atypically supple for this cru, with lovely sweetness in the middle palate. Less fine than the Bressandes but not at all hard. These vines are 40 years old, while the Bressandes is 25. (89-92/100)” - Stephen Tanzer, International Wine Cellar

CHATEAU DE LA TOUR

2002 Clos de Vougeot (Chateau de la Tour).....	$ 145.00	$ 123.25
"This retains only a background nuance of the strong wood spice it displayed from cask with floral red fruit aromas that lead to round, rich and complex full-bodied flavors of impressive purity and a lovely textured finish. The backend builds in intensity and there is a beguiling sweetness here instead of the usual young austerity. The precision here is unusual for such a big wine. 2012+ (91/100)"

"(a blend of 85 year old vines in Les Cherbaudes and 50 year old vines in La Perrière). The aromas here are almost mute, revealing only glimpses of black fruit and earth notes yet the flavors are quite expressive with plenty of old vine sap and intensity plus an opulent, lush, wonderfully persistent finish.
