"As I suggested in my in-barrel review, this had the potential to be a first rate stunner of a wine and it has indeed come together. Green fruit and citrus aromas with a subtle trace of quinine serve to highlight round, sweet and powerful flavors that possess enormous depth of material and the vibrancy of the finish is flat out unbelievable. In a sense, this is a deceptive wine in that no more than the finish appears to be winding down then it picks up again. At present, this is the longest and most persistent wine in the range and while this aspect is subject to change with time, it is a dazzling effort that vies credibly for top honors. I could still taste this wine the next day! 2011+ (95/100)"

DOMAINE VINCENT GIRARDIN
2004 Chassagne-Montrachet "Le Cailleret" (Girardin).....	$ 75.00	$ 63.75
"Deeply pitched aromas of wet stone and menthol. Fat, round and sweet, with harmonious acids to frame the very ripe flavors of peach and spring flowers. Impressively rich and layered. (89-92/100)"
- Stephen Tanzer, International Wine Cellar
2004 Puligny-Montrachet "Le Cailleret" (Girardin).....	$ 110.00	$ 93.50
2004 Corton-Charlemagne (Vincent Girardin)	$ 110.00	$ 93.50
"Green apple, wood spice and brown butter notes introduce incredibly intense, huge and very ripe flavors that drive though to an explosive and palate staining finish. This is a big wine carrying plenty of wood yet there is a good chance that it will successfully integrate it with a few years in bottle as there is terrific dry extract here. (90-93/100)"

2004 Meursault “Les Charmes” (Comtes Lafon).....	$ 250.00	$ 212.50

DOMAINE BERNARD MOREY

2004 Chassagne-Montrachet “Les Baudines” (Morey).....	$ 65.00	$ 55.25
---	----------	-----------------

“This has a reserved, even discreet nose but one that is superbly elegant and pure with transparent and intense flavors that culminate in a sweet, detailed and wonderfully long finish. This just oozes minerality and is still quite primary so be prepared to wait a few years first. (91/100)”

RAVENEAU

2004 Chablis “Montée de Tonnerre” (Raveneau)	$ 105.00	$ 89.25
--	-----------	-----------------

“A ripe nose of orchard fruit, citrus and a lovely stony character that also displays a touch of reduction highlights the big, powerful and intense flavors that possess excellent depth of material and perhaps the best complexity of any of these 1ers. This is a racehorse with firm acidity and terrific focus and it can compete with the grands crus in 2004 as it definitely has that ‘wow’ factor. 2012+ (93/100)”
