Lavières is a wine that ages well in even average vintages. 2013+ (89-91/100)"

2005	Morey-Saint-Denis “En la Rue de Vergy” (Bruno Clair).....	$ 75.00	$ 63.75
	“This is ultra elegant and superbly high-toned with simply gorgeous red pinot and freshly crushed strawberry fruit aromas that are cool and precede the light to middle weight flavors that are delicious, nervous and energetic, all wrapped in an intense, precise and stony finish. This is not particularly dense but it certainly is pretty and very pinot in character. 2012+ (87-90 /100)” - Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
2005	Vosne-Romanée “Les Champs Perdrix” (Bruno Clair).....	$ 85.00	$ 72.25

2005	Gevrey-Chambertin “Clos des Fontenys” (Bruno Clair)	$ 120.00	$ 102.00
	“As it usually is, this is deeply pitched on the nose with game, underbrush, dark berry fruit and hints of smoke and iron that continue onto the somewhat animale flavors that offer both richness and sweetness on the concentrated, intense and moderately structured finish. Good stuff here. 2015+ (89-92/100)” - Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

2005	Beaune “Clos des Mouches” (Joseph Drouhin).....	$ 120.00	$ 102.00
	“Representing huge domaine holdings and in effect the Drouhin flagship, their 2005 Beaune Clos des Mouches displays aromas of roasted meat, wood smoke, black truffles, plum and black raspberry. Persistently meaty in the mouth, with plum pit and wet stone adjuncts, this is archetypal 2005: richly ripe yet with an invigorating tart fresh edge and quite dark, even somber in flavor shadings. The long savory finish, while pouring out a generous helping of top quality fruit and meat juices, also offers a veritable catalog of mineral nuances ... if only one had names for them all. This should be terrific in 5-7 years. (92/100)” -David Schildknecht, The Wine Advocate

DOMAINE ROBERT GROFFIER

2005 Chambolle-Musigny “Les Hauts Doix” (Robert Groffier).....	$ 160.00	$ 136.00
“The 2005 Les Hauts Doix (from a small site that wraps around one third of Les Amoureuses) offers iris, musky narcissus florality, vanilla, raspberry and rhubarb in the nose, a silky palate with hints of smoke and game, and a juicy, sappy, bright, finish. A few years will tell what sort of additional complexity this will add (the 2002 is simply sensational today), but its combination of textural richness, clarity and kinetic vibrancy is already impressive. (92/100)”

2005 Bourgogne Rouge (de Montille).....	$ 38.00	$ 32.30
2005 Beaune “Les Sizies” (de Montille)	$ 78.00	$ 66.30

“A rather cool bitter cherry nose merges into round, sweet and beautifully detailed flavors that belie a trace of minerality and a well-balanced, intense and persistent finish. This is not overly complex but the harmony and transparency are lovely. 2010+ (88-91/100)”

- Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

2005 Beaune “Les Perrières” (de Montille)	$ 88.00	$ 74.80
---	----------	----------

“This too has a hint of bitter cherry but less of it with raspberry and red pinot fruit aromas that introduce distinctly mineral suffused medium full flavors that possess excellent dry extract, detail and precision on the intense, pure, dusty and transparent finish. This is really a lovely effort with a fine sense of underlying harmony and it is the best of these Beaune 1ers. 2012+ (89-92/100)”

- Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

2005 Beaune (Nicolas Rossignol)	$ 48.00	$ 40.80
“A lovely deep, black-edged color reflects these old vines and their nutty, stony meaty, black-fruited flavor concentration. Blackberry, beet root, toasted walnut, and tobacco feature prominently on a silken, expansive and impressively dense palate, which this wine stains thoroughly. (90/100)” - David Schildknecht, The Wine Advocate

DOMAINE CHÂTEAU DE LA TOUR

2005 Clos Vougeot (Château de la Tour)	$ 175.00	$ 148.75
“A deeply pitched and very ripe nose of earthy violet aromas trimmed in subtle wood spice notes introduces rich, full and powerful flavors that possess excellent mid-palate sap that helps to buffer the very firm and dense tannic spine on the youthfully austere finish. This is a very serious no-nonsense wine clearly built for long aging. 2019+ (91-93/100)” - Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
2005 Clos Vougeot “Vieilles Vignes” (Château de la Tour).....	$ 250.00	$ 212.50
“This too is very densely fruited with the same intense floral notes but here the fruit is darker with blue and black berry aromas that continue onto the palate saturating and hugely concentrated flavors that exude power and punch yet there is real depth as well, all wrapped in a very firmly but not aggressively structured finish that leaves no doubt that this will last for 50 years or longer. I quite like this but readers should note that this is a wine expressly made for those who intend to cellar and forget it for a long while. 2025+ (92-95/100)” - Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
