2008 Chablis – William Fèvre

- 2008 Chablis “Montmains” (William Fèvre)..... $ 34.00
“Here the nose is notably complex with buckets of mineral reduction adding nuance to the lightly spiced floral aromas that complement the sappy, detailed and graceful middle weight flavors that ooze Chablis character on the attractively lingering finish. A lovely and understated wine of finesse. 2012+ (89-91/100)”
- Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
- 2008 Chablis “Vaillons” (William Fèvre)..... $ 37.00
“A ripe and distinctly floral nose offers up additional notes of spice, tidal pool and shell fish that can also be found on the equally ripe and impressively pure flavors that are dense, serious and intense before culminating in a citrus-infused, balanced and persistent finish. Also very solid. 2013+ (89-92/100)”
- Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
- 2008 Chablis “Fourchaume” (William Fèvre)..... $ 37.00
“This is almost as aromatically complex but the profile is completely different as here the nose runs away from the floral and more toward green fruit and minerality that is classic Chablis in character and this character is reflected by the rich and full-bodied flavors that are serious and seem to ooze minerality on the saline and wonderfully intense finish. 2014+ (91-93/100)”
- Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
- 2008 Chablis “Fourchaume-Vignoble de Vaurorent” (William Fèvre)..... $ 52.00
“This is one of those wines where you can sense the sheer depth of material simply based on the nose as the very dense fruit displays additional hints of stone, tidal pool, algae, oyster shell and a mix of green fruit and white flower aromas that give way to concentrated, serious and rich flavors that are actually quite fine before culminating in an explosively long and palate staining finish. A terrific wine that could easily pass for a grand cru. 2014+ (92-95/100)”
- Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
- 2008 Chablis “Montee de Tonnerre” (William Fèvre) $ 69.00
“A discreet touch of wood sets pure, elegant and airy floral and spice aromas that are in perfect keeping with the racy, energetic and classy medium weight plus flavors that possess excellent depth as well as superb length. This delivers grand cru quality. 2014+ (92-94/100)”
- Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
- 2008 Chablis “Vaudesir” (William Fèvre)..... $ 69.00
“Extremely discreet notes of wood set off the ripest nose among these grands crus in 2008 with orchard fruit and pure citrus aromas leading to impressively precise big-bodied and powerful flavors brimming with dry extract and more minerality than usual on the refined, intense and hugely long finish. A wine of class and grace but with no lack of muscle. 2015+ (93-95/100)”
- Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
- 2008 Chablis “Les Preuses” (William Fèvre) $ 79.00
“This would be almost impossible to miss the origins as the marine influence on the pungently mineral, airy and superbly elegant nose is extremely strong with Chablis character to burn. The seductive middle weight flavors brim with dry extract, which does a perfect job of buffering the structural elements on the mouth coating and sappy finish that seems to go on and on. About the only distinction between this and the other grands crus is that the finish is perhaps not quite as precise as that of the Valmur but otherwise, this is very Preuses and very classy juice. 2015+ (93-95/100)”

- 2008 Chablis “Bougros-Côte de Bouguerots” (William Fèvre)..... $ 79.00
“Even though the straight Bougros is finer than usual, it is no where near as elegant and pure as this as the high-toned and strikingly layered nose of oyster shell, mineral reduction and perfumed cool green fruit is extremely seductive and serves as a fascinating introduction to the concentrated, serious and powerful yet refined flavors that ooze a fine minerality on the mouth coating and hugely long finish. This is blessed with buckets of sap that completely buffer the firm acid spine. This is a flat out great effort that makes one go ‘wow’. 2015+ (94-96/100)”
 - Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
- 2008 Chablis “Valmur” (William Fèvre) $ 89.00
“The reflections are the classic light gold-green hues of a fine Chablis. The barest touch of oak highlights the green fruit, menthol, saline and iodine aromas that precede the extremely stony, concentrated and driving flavors that are also blessed with ample amounts of dry extract that provides a much needed balancing element to the ripe acid backbone on the chalky and sappy finish. When Valmur is really good, it rivals Les Clos for the best grand cru in Chablis and this 2008 is really good. 2015+ (93-96/100)”
 - Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
- 2008 Chablis “Les Clos” (William Fèvre)..... $ 95.00
“Here too the elegance of the nose is simply stunning with a layered and perfumed aromatic profile that oozes Chablis character and in particular, a fine minerality that continues onto the impressively concentrated and palate staining flavors that possess striking precision on the explosively long finish. This is a great Les Clos that will make old bones. 2015+ (94-97/100)”
